

CTE NEWS

According to a 2016 study by Fordham University, students who focus on a CTE career pathway increase their chances of graduating by 21 percentage points. The average high school graduation rate for CTE-focused students is 93 percent. (Focus is a minimum of 3 courses in a career pathway.)

BAY HS ALLIED HEALTH STUDENTS LEARN ABOUT THE CARE OF HORSES

THE ALLIED HEALTH PROGRAM AT BAY HIGH SCHOOL AND THE HOSA CLUB ARE BUSY EXPLORING HEALTH IN HUMANS AND ANIMALS

Bay High School's Allied Health Program offers a broad health science curriculum and an after school career organization called Health Occupations Students of America (HOSA). They have been busy this year even though they have not been able to work in hospitals or assisted/retirement communities with other health professionals. In April they participated in Autism Awareness Week and provided t-shirts that one of the Autism teachers tied for her students. The Allied Health students went on a fieldtrip to visit Misti Farms where they learned about the care, feeding and health of horses. They have helped with the Blood Drives at Bay High School and they also had the opportunity to earn their First Aid and CPR Certifications.

Bozeman's Agriculture Program is recognized around Florida. This month we want to recognize their outstanding middle school students who are competing around the state. The Middle School Aquaculture Team members are Haley Jaramillo, Gracie Miller, Kimber Floyd, and Kayli Willoughby. They placed 4th in the state at the 2021 Florida FFA Aquaculture State Finals. (pictured above)

We want to also recognize Jamie Leabo a member of Bozeman's Agriculture Career Pathway for winning 3rd place in the state's Ornamental Horticulture Demonstration for Production Career Development Event. (pictured on page 2)
