* The maximum annual contribution is the lesser of $2,500 if you are married and you and your spouse file separate income tax returns, your income, or your spouse's income.

ELIGIBILITY

If you are eligible to participate in the medical insurance program you are also eligible to participate in the Flexible Benefit Plan. You are not required to participate in the medical insurance program to participate in the Flexible Spending Accounts.

ENROLLMENT

If you pay qualified premiums by payroll deduction, you will be automatically enrolled in Premium Conversion. You enroll for the FSAs by completing the appropriate Enrollment Form provided to you by the Payroll Department. You may elect to contribute to one or both of the FSAs.

IF YOU DO NOT ENROLL WHEN FIRST ELIGIBLE

If you do not elect to participate in the FSAs when you are first eligible, you will not be able to elect to participate in either account during that plan year (July 1 through June 30), unless you experience a qualified status change that allows you to elect to participate. Unless you have a qualified status change, you must wait until the next open enrollment period to enroll.

WHEN PARTICIPATION BEGINS

Your participation in the Premium Conversion Plan begins when coverage under a qualified insurance plan begins.

As long as you enroll when you are first eligible (normally within 30 days from your date of hire), your FSA participation will begin on your date of hire, however reimbursement of any eligible expenses will not be possible until the first deduction of your plan participation has occurred. If you wait to enroll during a subsequent open enrollment period, participation begins on the next July 1.

QUALIFIED STATUS CHANGES

Generally, once you are enrolled, your participation in Premium Conversion and the FSAs must remain in effect through the following June 30 -- meaning you may not start or stop contributions or change your contribution amount under any circumstances -- unless you experience a qualified change in status that permits a change in your participation under Section 125 of the Internal Revenue Code. Examples of qualified status changes include marriage or divorce, loss of a dependent, birth or adoption of a child, changes in employment status, or unpaid leave of absence.

An additional set of rules applies to the Dependent Care FSA. If you begin using work-related day care, stop using day care, or if your costs for day care change during a plan year, you may make a corresponding change to your participation in the Dependent Care.

You have 30 days from the date of a qualified status change to make allowable changes in your participation in insurance coverages under the Premium Conversion Plan or your FSAs, if any, by contacting the Payroll Department and completing the required form. Your new election must be on account of, and consistent with your qualified status change.

If you do not notify the Payroll Department of a qualified status change, and your intent to make a corresponding change in benefits, within 30 days after the event, you will not be permitted to change your benefits until the earlier of the date of your next qualifying status change or beginning of the next plan year.

Requests for changes submitted before the date of a qualified status change must be confirmed in writing within 30 days after the event.

Failure to follow these rules imposed by the Internal Revenue Code could cause you to continue to make contributions beyond the date you have eligible expenses, but no longer than through the remainder of the plan year. This applies to both Premium Conversion and the FSAs.

BEFORE-TAX CONTRIBUTIONS

Contributions under the Flexible Benefit Plan are made by payroll deduction from your salary before federal income and Social Security (FICA) taxes are withheld. State and local tax laws vary as to their treatment of tax-free contributions. Your Premium Conversion contribution is equal to your share of the premiums. Flexible Spending Account contributions are limited:

MINIMUM AND MAXIMUM CONTRIBUTIONS

|                             | Health Care FSA | Dependent Care FSA |
|-----------------------------|-----------------|--------------------|
| Annual Minimum Contribution | $200           | $200              |
| Annual Maximum Contribution | $2,650         | $5,000            |

The IRS imposes special limits on contributions to dependent care accounts. These limits are described later in the certificate.

ESTIMATE EXPENSES CAREFULLY

It is important to estimate expenses carefully before you decide how much to contribute to a Flexible Spending Account.

UNEXPENDED BALANCES

Health Care FSA – Historically, unused funds were forfeited under the “use-it-or-lose-it” rule. Our plan has adopted an amendment that will allow employees participating in the Health Care FSA to carry forward up to $500.00 in unused funds into the next plan year. You have until September 30th to file claims for expenses incurred during the current plan year or July 1st through June 30th. If after the final accounting you have leftover (unused) money available, up to $500.00 can be added to your available balance for the new plan year. You must be enrolled in the FSA for the new plan year for the money to roll forward. For example, if you contribute $600 to your Health Care FSA and incur eligible claims totaling only $500, the remaining $100 will be added to your new year balance after the three month claim filing grace period following the plan year end, usually in October. There would be no forfeitures unless your unused amount exceeds $500.

Dependent Care FSA - You will forfeit any account balance that is not used to pay eligible expenses incurred during the plan year, which runs from July 1 through June 30. Under IRS rules, you cannot receive a refund of any unused balance, transfer amounts between accounts, or carry funds over from one year to the next. Forfeited amounts are applied toward the Flexible Spending Accounts administrative costs.

You have until September 30 following the end of the plan year to submit requests for reimbursement (claims) to the Flexible Spending Account administrator.

CONTRIBUTION IN EFFECT FOR THE ENTIRE PLAN YEAR

During the plan year, you cannot change the annual amount you decide to contribute to a Flexible Spending Account (unless you experience a qualified status change).

The Flexible Spending Account Worksheet at the end of this certificate will help you figure out how much you might want to contribute.
